TABLE OF CONTENTS.

PAGE

THE CHRISTIAN AGNOSTIC AND THE CHRISTIAN GNOSTIC. By Very Rev. Augustine F. Hewit, D.D., C.S.P., ... 1

What the Agnostic and the Gnostic respectively profess, 1; What the Christian Agnostic is, 2; The true idea of the supernatural order, 3; Cognition, what it is, 4; The essence of God is beyond its range, 5; What rational beings of the natural order, can attain and what they aspire to, 6, 7; In what God is indirectly and mediately knowable, 8; The natural end and destiny of intelligent beings, 9; The difference between the Christian Agnostic and the non-Christian Agnostic, 10; In what respect the Christian is also a Gnostic, 11; The doctrine of Pantheism, 13; The Incarnation, the summit of the supernatural order, 14; What human consciousness testifies, 15; How a correct idea of the supernatural opens the way for solving difficult religious questions, 16, 17; Not impossible for God to reveal truths unknowable to the human intellect, 18, 19.

CHURCH AND STATE. By Brother Azarias, ... 20

The two principles under which society lives and moves, 20: The relation of Church and State in pagan times, 21; How Christianity became a new civilizing element, 22; The meaning, both of Church and of State, 23; How Christ organized the Church, 24; Its jurisdiction, 25; Its teaching power, 26; Misconceptions of non-Catholics, 26; Catholic writers differ on matters of mere opinion, 27; In what unity of doctrine consists, 28; Limitations of the teaching mission of the Church, 29, 30; What the State is; its origin and power, 31; Christian submission to the State, 32; How the Church educated the barbarian, 33; The struggle for supremacy between the Papacy and the Holy Roman Empire, 34-36; Disastrous consequences of the State refusing to recognize the authority of the Church, 37, 38; Origin and basis of the rights and liberty of American citizens, 39; Attitude of the State to religion in this country, 40; Religion makes the truest patriots, 41.

GOD'S SAINTS THE TRUE REFORMERS IN HIS CHURCH. By O'R., . . . 42

St. Bernard; the effect produced by his "Apology," 42; Louis VI. and the Bishop of Paris, 43; The council at Troyes and St. Bernard's letter, 44, 45; Rules for the Knights Templar drawn up by St. Bernard, 46; Characteristics of St. Bernard's writings, 47, 48; St. Bernard on the disputed Papal succession, 49; Innocent II. and the Emperor Lothaire, 50; Visit of Innocent II. to Clairvaux, 51, 52; St. Bernard's visit to Italy, 53, 54; The supporters of the Anti-Pope, Anacletus, 55; The Council of Pisa and St. Bernard, 56; Miracles wrought by the Saint in Milan; Bernard's visit to Germany, 58; A second Clairvaux erected, 59; Lothaire's dispute with Innocent II. on the right of investiture, 60; The General Council of the Lateran, 61; What the Cistercians did for Italy, 62; St. Malachy's visit to Clairvaux, 63; His edifying death, 64; His burial, and that of St. Bernard, 65; Concluding reflections, 66.

THE ORIGIN OF THE GREAT SCHISM OF THE WEST. By Rev. James F. Loughlin, D.D., ... 67

Opinion of Benedict XIV. as to the Popes who resided at Avignon, 67; Gibbon's suggestion, 68; The respective parties to the schism, 69; Periods spent by the Popes in Exile, 70; Gregory XVI., 71; St. Catherine of Sienna, 72; Gregory's journey to Rome, 73; His treatment there, 74; Conflicting accounts of Gregory's dying sentiments, 75; What the people of Rome sought to do, on Gregory's death, 76; Diverse nationalities of the Cardinals, 77; Their timidity and hesitation, 78; Two conflicting accounts of the election of Urban, 79-82; Flight of the Cardinals, 83; Conflicting accounts of what occurred after the election, 84-86; Urban's violent denunciation of Bishops, 87; Retort of the Cardinal of Amiens, and the formal commencement of the Schism of the West, 88-90.

THE LATIN VULGATE CIVILIZING WESTERN EUROPE. By John Gilmary Shea, LL.D., ... 90

The Greek Church wanting in missionary spirit, 90; Employment of the Greek language in first ages of the Church, 91; The Vulgate the language of the Church, 92; Latin became the general medium of communication among scholars, 93; The Vulgate in its relation to the supernatural life, 94; Luther's assault upon the Vulgate, 95; English Reformers decrying the Vulgate, 96; The Council of Trent and the Vulgate, 97; Revision of the Vulgate, 97.

NUMBER OF THE EXTERNAL SENSES: WHAT USE MAN'S REASON CAN MAKE OF THEIR MANIFESTATIONS AS DATA. By Rev. Walter H. Hill, S.J., LL.D., ... 99

What the subject comprehends, 99; How the primary qualities of bodies are "sensible," 100; Is a rational animal, having more than five senses, intrinsically possible? 101; Opinions of Sanseverino, St. Thomas, and others, 102, 103; The human mind can reason from an effect to its cause, essentially superior to it, 104-106; Reason from created beings to God is not universal, nor equivocal, but analogical, 107; What is the logical order in reasoning of God, 108; Representative ideas, 109; Whence the intellectual idea derives its immaterial character, 110; Man's likeness to the Divine nature, analogical, 111; Concluding remarks, 112.

PAGE

CARDINAL LAVIGERIE AND THE FRENCH REPUBLIC. By Very Rev. Mgr. Schrœder, D.D, ... 113

Cardinal Lavigerie at Brussels, and his speech on the slave trade, 113, 114; His reply to a toast at a banquet at Algiers, 115; France's future, 116, 117; Necessity of adhesion to the existing form of government. 118; Legitimism is dead, 119; The re-establishment of the monarchy a Utopian dream, 120; The Orleanists and the Imperialists, 121; The French Republic has now no longer enemies, 122; What the French Catholic journals and the Figaro said, 123; The sensation caused by the Cardinal's speech, 124; Union must be the motto, 125; The Cardinal not inconsistent, 126; Comprehensiveness of the Cardinal's speech, its logic, and the source of his intense earnestness, 127-131.

HENRY C. LEA AS AN HISTORIAN. By Rev. T. Bouquillon, D.D., ... 131

What Mr. Lea treats of in his Chapters from the Religious History of Spain, 131; How a writer's claims to confidence may be tested, 132; Mr. Lea's references to the Apostolic Constitutions and the Corpus Juris, 133; Critical exposure of his numerous blunders, 134-137; Mr. Lea on the Church and the reading of the Bible, 138, 139; The reason for the first restrictive action of the Church, 140-142; Immense number of faulty translations by the "Reformers," 143; The decree of the Council of Trent respecting the Bible, 144; Spain and the decree of the Council of Trent, 145; Mr. Lea's contradictory statements, 146; His slight acquaintance with the acts of the Church respecting the reading of the sacred Scriptures, 147; The Roman and Spanish indexes, 148; Mr. Lea's mistakes respecting them, 149; His blunders respecting the Inquisitor General, Valdes, 150, 151; The Spanish bishops and the Index, 152; History and meaning of the Index of Paul IV., 152, 153; Mr. Lea's unfortunate interpretation of the Index, 154, 155; The Spanish Index in harmony with the Roman Index, 156, 157; Summing up the case, 158.

THE ÆSTHETIC IN EDUCATION. By E. A. Starr, ... 159

Essential beauty belongs only to God, 159; Homer and Pindar, the influences that surrounded them, 160, 161; Dante, 162; Personal reminiscences, 163; The conditions of the æsthetic never change, 164, 165; Christian art compared with pagan art, 165, 166; The æsthetic character of the ceremonials of the Church, 167-170.

IRELAND'S CAUSE, IRELAND'S LEADER. By Rt. Rev. Mgr. Bernard O'Reilly, D.D., ... 171

Secretary Balfour's coercive measures, 171; imprisonment of John Dillon and William O'Brien, 172; The Times Balfour-Salisbury conspiracy, 173; The O'Shea trial, 174-176; The Irish hierarchy and their position, 177; What they did, 178; Mr. Gladstone's letter and Parnell's manifesto, 179-181; Parnell's rashness and obstinacy, 183; Though the leader has fallen, the cause is not lost, 184; We must love Ireland for her own sake, 185; English, Scotch and Welsh Liberals will still advocate Ireland's cause, 186.

FINANCIAL RELATION OF CHURCH AND STATE IN FRANCE. By Richard R. Elliott, ... 187

Income of the Church's possessions in France, at the epoch of the Revolution, 187; Napoleon and the restoration of religion in France, 188; Insufficiency of government allowance to bishops and priests under the Concordat, 188-190; The sad effects of this, 191, 195; Report on the subject by Count Decazes in 1819, 196; Official tables of government expenditures for the support of religion in 1890, 197, 198; Extent to which the Church has been despoiled, 199.

SCIENTIFIC CHRONICLE. By Rev. D. T. O'Sullivan, S.J., ... 200

Electro-magnetic theory of light, 200-205; The spectroscope in astronomy, 205-208; Electricity in war, 209-211; Short notes on scientific subjects, 212-215.

JOHN HENRY NEWMAN AS A PREACHER. By Rev. Joseph V. Tracey, . . . 225

Difference between preaching and oratory stated, 225; The gifts an orator must have, 226, 227; What makes an effective preacher, 228; Newman's belief in his having a mission, 229; His unworldliness and earnestness, 230; His keen insight and intellectual honesty, 231; Their effect upon his hearers, 232; The union of the heart and the intellect, 233; Newman's Grammar of Assent, 234; His lectures on Anglican difficulties, 235; Even when most dramatic there was no tempest in his passion, 236; An invidious misrepresentation refuted, 237, 238; Newman's realism, 239.

EDEN AND THE CŒNACULUM. By Very Rev. Augustine Hewit, D.D., C.S.P., 240

The state in which our first parents were constituted, 240; Calvinism logically consistent, but absurd and incredible, 241; The natural and the supernatural, 242; What the human race lost through the sin of our first parents, 243; Misapprehensions corrected, 244-246; The problem of evil, 247, 248; The probation of the angels, 249; The conditions of human probation after the fall, 250; Opposite erroneous views, 251; By the fall man has been reduced to a merely natural condition, 252; Probation is prolonged to the end of natural life, 253; What is needed to solve the problem of the permission of evil in the world, 254; The Cœnaculum, 255; The culminating point of the natural and the supernatural orders, 256; The evening of Holy Thursday in the Cœnaculum, 257; The only assignable cause for belief in the resurrection and its effects, 258, 259; Not compelled to regard the multitudes of non-Christians as altogether destitute of grace, 260; The only just measure and rule of imperfect reason and knowledge, 261; The Incarnation of the Son of God, and the wonderful manifestation of love and mercy in his life, and death upon the cross satisfies every demand of the human intellect and heart, 262.

PAGE

THE INTELLECTUAL LIFE OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH. By Arthur F. Marshall, B.A. (Oxon.), ... 263

Faith is the highest exercise of the intellect, 263; The three positions on this subject, 264; The Catholic Church, the guardian of divine truth, 266; The family, the state and the Church all ruled by one and the same Divine Head, 266; Rome's place in the world, 267; The Monastic orders, 268; What the Catholic faith has done for education, 269; What it has done for science, philosophy and progress in industrial pursuits, for Christian statesmanship, diplomacy and the fine arts, 270–273; Fatal results of the New Philosophy, 274–276; The conclusion, 277–279.

TRANSFORMISM: LAMARK—DARWIN. By Rev. A. Orban, D.D., S.S., ... 280

What Darwinism substantially is, 280; The general idea of species, 281; Lamark's notion, 282, 283; Charles Lyell, 284; Darwin's theory, 285; "Natural selection" or the "survival of the fittest," 286, 287; Classification of plants and animals, 288; rudimentary members, 289; Disappearance of many species, 290; The flora and fauna of different countries, 291; Embryology, 292; The evolutionist theory does not detract from the glory of God, 292; The Bible narrative of creation, 293, 294; Darwinism at variance with ascertained facts, 295; Concluding remarks, 296, 297.

THE TRANSIT OF MERCURY, MAY 9, 1891. By Rev. William F. Rigge, S.J., 298

Transits of Venus, their importance, 298; What problems those of Mercury may solve, 299; Diagrams showing the circumstances of the approaching transit, 300; explanatory remarks, 301–304; Two classes of transits of Mercury, 305; Diagrams representing the earth as seen from the sun, 306; Where the transit will be visible, 307.

PROFESSING THEMSELVES TO BE WISE, THEY BECOME FOOLS. By St. George Mivart, F.R.S., Etc., ... 309

The scholastic philosophy, 309; Descartes, Locke, Berkeley, Voltaire, 310; Metaphysical cloud palaces, 311; Our knowledge of God, how obtained, 312; The intellectual nemesis that awaits the teaching of æsthetic thinkers, 313; The principle of causation, 314; Refutation of objections to this principle, 315, 316; Self-contradiction of the notion that our knowledge is only relative, 317; Ability to know objective truths, 318; Experimental knowledge, 319; Self-stultification of Agnosticism, 320; The two camps into which the intellectual world is dividing itself, 321; Agnostics and Agnostics, 322; Agnosticism essentially demoralizing, 323–325; Cardinal Newman, 326; Concluding remarks, 327–329.

THE POPES AND THE TEMPORAL POWER, 1790–1823. By John L. Mooney, LL.D., ... 330

Pius VI. and Joseph II., 330; The men of 1789, their chief logical aim, 331; Napoleon despoiling the Church, 332, 333; Pius VII., 334; What Napoleon was, 335; Napoleon crowning himself, 336; Seizing Ancona, his insolent letter to Pius VII., 337; His menaces and demands, 338; The Pope's prudence and firmness, 339, 340; Napoleon's decree to abolish the Temporal Power, 341; His impudent claim to "have done much good to the Pope," 342; His brutal orders to Murat brutally executed, 343; Pius VII. a prisoner, 344; His acceptance of the Concordat of Fontainebleau, under compulsion, and his retraction, 346; Napoleon's nemesis, 347; Restoration to Pius VII., of his Temporal Sovereignty, 348; The Bourbons, 349; The Carbonari, 350; Concluding reflecttons 351, 352.

MR. LECKY ON IRISH HOME RULE. By Bryan J. Clinch, ... 353

Mr. Lecky a partisan rather than a historian, 353; Inaccurate in his statements respecting the English and Scotch settlers, 354; Various false assertions, 355; His attempted palliation of the Penal Code, 356; The Wexford insurrection, 357, 358; Original object of the United Irishmen, 359; Mr. Lecky's illusive picture of the condition of Ireland, 360, 361; His audaciously false description of the anti-Home Rule party in Ireland, 362, 363.

PROMISE OF THE SECOND SPRING IN ENGLAND. By A. M. Grange, ... 364

The dark and dreary aspect of the eighteenth century to an English Catholic, 364, 365; John Wesley, 366; Milner and his "End of Controversy," 367; Spencer, his character and work, 368; John Henry Newman, 369, 370; The Association of Prayer, 371; The beatification of the fifty-four English Martyrs, 372; The Guild of our Lady of Ransom, 373–375; The "House of Expiation," 376, 377; The deplorable religious state of the poor, 378; A ground for hope, 379; Counter influences, 380, 381.

PAGE

THE EULOGIA, OR BLESSED BREAD. By Ellis Schrieber, ... 382

Distribution of the blessed bread still forms a part of the liturgy of the Eastern Church; In former times it prevailed throughout Christendom, 382; Ancient references to it, 383, 384; Description of the ceremonial, 385; The kind of bread used, 386–388; The form of blessing it in the Sarum and Mozarabic Missals, 389; Why the distribution of blessed bread has been discontinued in the Western Church, 390; Distribution of the blessed bread in England in former times, 391–393; Cessation of this holy rite in England, 394, 395.

AMERICAN CATHOLICITY. By Right Rev. Thomas S. Preston, D.D., V.G., . . 396

Errors often concealed under a name, 396; American Catholicity, what errors this term is sometimes used to hide, 397; Falsity of the notion that all religions are good, and the Catholic religion is only better than others, 398; The modern notion of progress, 399; The decrees of the Apostolic See and of the Roman Congregations, 400; The Church and the State, 401; Religion and Education, 402, 403; The Temporal Power, 404, 405; True American Catholicity; its characteristics, 406–408.

SCIENTIFIC CHRONICLE. By Rev. Thomas J. A. Freeman, S. J., ... 409

Dr. Koch and the Consumption Cure, 409–413; Three or Four—Which is It? or Whether There is a Fourth State of Matter, 414–418; The Pacific Cable, 419, 420; Electricity from Coal, 421–423; Rain on Tap, 424, 425; Four Great Towers, 426, 427.

THE IDEA OF A PAROCHIAL SCHOOL. By Rev. John Murphy, C.S., Sp., . . . 449

Why the Church in the United States has constituted the system of parochial schools, 449; What the education in our parochial schools should be, 450; Relative value of the public and of the parochial schools, 451; Defects of the public school system, 452; Decrees of the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore respecting parochial schools, 453, 454; The local pastor's relation to the parochial school, 455; School examiners, 456, 457; Importance of systematic inspection and examination, 458, 459; Necessity for providing suitable school-houses and equipments, 460; Good schools, good teachers, and good teaching, the three great requisites to success, 461.

PROOFS OF THE EXISTENCE OF GOD DRAWN FROM THE METAPHYSICAL OR IDEAL ORDER. By Rev. L. F. Kearney, S.T.L., O.P., ... 462

Human reason capable of demonstrating the existence of God, 463; Arguments from the physical order, 464; Our certitude of objective truths, 464; How the argument from metaphysical essences and abstract concepts shall be classed, 465; Objections answered, 466, 467; The only object of the human intellect is ens, being, 468; The infinite not a possible reality, 469; The author's argument not the same as that of St. Thomas, 470; An objection stated and answered, 471, 472; The position of St. Thomas, 473, 474.

FRANCIS DEMONTMORENCY-LAVAL, BISHOP OF QUEBEC. By Right Rev. Mgr. Bernard O'Reilly, D.D., ... 475

Why Mgr. Laval's name is doubly dear, 475; His parentage and education, 476; Appointed Vicar Apostolic of New France, 477; His arrival at Quebec, 478; St. Francis Xavier his model, 479; His austerities, 480; Immensity of the field of his labors, 481; His zeal and charity, 482; His invincible fortitude, 484; His persistent opposition to allowing liquor to be sold to the Indians, 485, 486; Misrepresented and persecuted, 487, 488; Sending one of his Vicar-Generals to France to represent him, 489; The Seminary of Quebec, what it is, 490, 491; How Mgr. Laval found means to support it, 492, 493; The Petit Seminaire, or Preparatory School, 494, 495; The agricultural and industrial school, 496; The devoted men and women who surrounded Mgr. Laval, 497; Destruction of the seminary by fire and its rebuilding, 498; Last illness and death of Mgr. Laval, 499; Universal grief, his burial, 500.

EARLY CHRISTIAN SEPULTURE. By Rt. Rev. Mgr. Robert Seton, D.D., . . 501

Universality of the traditional belief in the immortality of the soul, 501; Incinerating the dead abhorred by the early Christians, 502; Description by ancient writers of Christian burial, 503–505; Anniversaries of the dead religiously kept, 506; How and where the early Christians of Rome buried their dead, 507, 508; St. Gregory of Nazianzen, 509; The equalizing influences of the Church manifested in Christian burials, 510; Intramural burials, 511; St. Chrysostom, Pope Pelagius II., 512; At whose expense the Christians were buried, 513; Imprecations against sacrilegious violators of the dead, 514.

WINDTHORST. By Very Rev. Mgr. Joseph Schrœder, D.D., ... 515

Windthorst at the Congress of German Catholics in 1890, 515–517; His edifying death, 518; The faith and humility of Windthorst, 519; The eloquent testimony of M. Stern, a Hebrew, 520; Windthorst's lovable virtue, 521; His love of work, 522; The most critical epoch in Windthorst's life, 523; The temptations that assailed him, 524; His true, real greatness, 525; Epigrams, 526–528.

ENCYCLICAL LETTER OF POPE LEO XIII., ... 529

Why the Holy Father speaks on the CONDITION OF LABOR, 529; The remedies proposed by the Socialists fallacious and contrary to justice, 530–532; The right of individual ownership of property indisputable, 533; The family and the state, 534; No practical solution possible without the assistance of religion and the Church, 535; The mistake of supposing that class is naturally arrayed against class, 536; Defrauding any one of his wages is a crime, 537; Freedom from sorrow and abundance of earthly riches no guarantee of eternal beatitude, 538; Man should not consider his possessions as his own, 539; In God's sight poverty is no disgrace, 540; The solicitude of the Church for the temporal as well as spiritual interests of her children, 541; The patrimony of the Church, 542; To the state the interests of all must be equal, 543; The state must not absorb the individual or the family, 544; The interests, both individual and public, which the state must protect, 545; Why working people strike, 546; The obligation of ceasing from work on Sundays and certain festivals, 547; Employers should always allow their work-people proper rest for soul and body, 548; Workmen's wages, 549; Excessive taxation, 550; Workmen's associations, 551–555; The condition of the working population is the question of the hour, 556, 557.

PAGE

THE PROSPECT FOR IRISH HOME RULE. By Bryan J. Clinch, ... 558

The Irish party in Parliament almost paralyzed, 558; The Irish people had no control over the circumstances that produced the schism, 559; Mr. Parnell's reputation prior to the O'Shea trial, 560; How the exposure of his immorality affected the English Liberals and the Irish Catholic bishops, 561–564; The Irish people cannot trust their destinies in Parnell's hands, 565; Necessity of the Irish Nationalists reuniting, 566; The Irish people must speak out at the next election, 567; If they do, there is no reason to doubt that they will succeed, 568.

THE POPES AND THE TEMPORAL POWER: 1823–1846. By John L. Mooney, LL.D., ... 569

Temporal rulers claiming divine authority, 569; Napoleon's defeat relieved neither Church nor state from despotism, 570; A new force directed against the Church, 571; Satanic secret societies in Italy, 572; Revolutionary outbreak in 1831, in Italy, 573; Louis Philippe's treachery, 574; How the Carbonari failed in their scheme to overthrow the Papacy, 575–577; Metternich, 577; Mazzini's estimate of Rome, 578; Metternich's forecast, 579; Seizure of Ancona, in 1832, by the French, 580; The famous "Memorandum," 581; The Carbonari of Italy, 582, 583; Influence of Voltairianism on the Italians, 584, 585; "Young Italy," its aim and methods, 586; Mazzini, an advocate of assassination and suicide, 587–589; Character of the Italian governments, 590, 591; Course pursued by Gregory XVI., 593, 594.

THE ENCYCLICAL "RERUM NOVARUM." By Rt. Rev. John J. Keane, D.D., 595

Momentous importance of this Encyclical, 595; The Holy Father and Socialists, 596; The principle of private ownership and the fact of private ownership, 597; Origin of private ownership, 598; The remedy for the social evils of the day, 599; Herbert Spencer and John Stuart Mill, 600; Duty of civil rulers, 600–604; The proper use of wealth, 605; Wages of workmen, 606, 607; Strikes and arbitration, 608; Associations of workmen, 609, 610.

THE MYSTERY OF CHRISTIAN MARRIAGE. By Rev. James F. Loughlin, D.D., ... 611

Erasmus, Luther, Calvin, their sneers, 611; An immense difference between marriage in Christ and in His Church and the polygamous alliances of the ancient patriarchs or the unstable unions of the heathen, 612; What our Lord's Epiphany at the wedding feast teaches, 613; How marriage in the creed and general practice of the Roman Catholic Church differs from all other marriages, 614; Adultery does not dissolve the marriage bond, 615; What the Apostolic Father, Hermas, says, 616; The Greek Church, 617, 618; Our Lord allowed no dissolution of a marriage ratum et consummatum, 618; The provision made by our Lord to raise marriage from its degradation, 619, 620; The meaning of the text, Eph. V., 32, examined and stated, 621; Protestant commentators, 622–626; What is marriage, if it be not a sacrament, 627.

THE FAILURE OF NATIVE CLERGY. By P. S. J., ... 628

An erroneous explanation of the destruction of the Church in Japan, 628; Father Alexander de Rhodes, S. J., 629; Christianity and Portugal, 630; Fr. de Rhodes' continued efforts foiled by Portuguese opposition, 631; How Pallu, appointed Vicar Apostolic of Tonquin, was prevented reaching his See, 632; Canonization of Japanese martyrs, 633; Zeal and devotedness of the missionaries to Japan, 634, 635.

SCIENTIFIC CHRONICLE. By Rev. Thomas J. A. Freeman, S. J., ... 636

Radiant Matter, 636–644; A Fall of a Thousand Feet, 645–650; Stopping Runaway Horses by Electricity, 651, 652; A New Life-Saving Belt, 653; Extinguishing Fires by Electricity, 654, 655.

AQUINAS RESUSCITATUS, ... 673

Origin of the revival of the study of St. Thomas, 673; The Holy Father's utterances on the subject, 674; Two different types of feeling, each of which is based on a misapprehension, 675; Blind admirers are the worst enemies, 676; Opposed to these is another class of thinkers, 677; They want direct refutations of modern philosophic errorists, 678; Both parties partly right and partly wrong, 679; Distinction between positive and scholastic theology, 680–682; The chief difficulty in complying with the demands of the Scholastic Theologian, 683, 684; Dr. Wm. Barry on St. Thomas, 685; The Dublin Review, 686; Trained scholastic theologians must supply weapons for the intellectual defence of the faith, 687; Misapprehensions of writer's meaning guarded against, 688–690.

PAGE

DEVELOPMENT OF ENGLISH CATHOLIC LITERATURE. By Arthur F. Marshall, B.A. (Oxon), ... 691

Catholic literature before the time of Catholic Emancipation, 691 ; Bishops Milner and Challoner, Alban Butler, Dr. Lingard, 692; Third period of the Catholic literary revival, 693, Changed character of English Catholic literature since Newman's conversion, 693; Reason for the change, 694; The Oxford converts, 695–698; Other influences, 699; The religious orders in England and the "Catholic Truth Society," 700; The dark side of the subject, 701, 702.

RELIGION OF THE ANCIENT EGYPTIANS. By Rev. W. S. Kress, ... 703

The earliest manifestations of Egyptian culture are connected with religion, 703; Was the ancient religion pantheistic, polytheistic or monotheistic?, 704–706; Animal worship not an element of the primitive religion of the Egyptians, 707; Reasons for believing that their religion at first was monotheistic, 708; Their chief god, 709; The first group of assistant gods, 710; Their general idea of a creation, 711; Their third group of gods, 712; Osiris and Isis were their favorite deities, 713; Their mythical history, 714; Introduction of a new divinity, 715; Sacred animals, what they were intended to represent, 716; The moral precepts of the Egyptians, 717, 718; Their ceremonial, 719; Their priests and the education of princes, 720; Their funeral ceremonies, influence of their religious rites on their character, 721.

THE TWO SICILIES AND THE CAMORRA. By John A. Mooney, LL D, . . . 723

The Northern and the Southern Italians; lack of mutual esteem, 723; The reason, 724; How or when the Camorra was first organized no one can tell, 725; The first degree of the Camorrist, 726; The vast numbers of members of secret societies in Naples and Sicily, 727; What the French did, 728; Ferdinand and Napoleon, 729; Murat, 730; Number in 1819, of the Carbonari, 731; Ferdinand II., or Bomba, 732; "Young Italy," 733; Palmerston and his agent, 734; Louis Napoleon, Mazzini, Cavour, 735; Garibaldi, 736; How Garibaldi and his "thousand" robbed and slaughtered, 737; The Camorra and the Lazzaroni, 738, 739; The second degree of the Camorra, 740; How the picciotto becomes a full fledged Camorrist, 741; How disobedient members are punished, 742; The privileges of the Camorrist, 743; The Camorra controls the jails, 744; The joint conspiracy of the Liberals and the Camorra, 745, 746; Representatives of the Camorra in the Cabinet, the courts and the jails, 747; The real character of the Sicilians, 748.

THE ROMAN CATACOMBS. By Right Rev. Mgr. Robert Seton, D.D., ... 749

Origin of the word catacomb, 749; First general edict against Christian cemeteries, 750; The catacombs from the fifth to the eighth century, 751; The very existence of the catacombs unknown for several centuries prior to the sixteenth, 752; The testimony of the catacombs, 753; Construction of the catacombs, 754–756; The lamps used in them, the sculptures and paintings, 757–759.

RELIGION IN EDUCATION. By Brother Azarias, ... 760

Why Church schools exist, 760; The relation of the individual to the State under Christianity is different from what it was under former civilizations, 761; Modern civilization essentially Christian, 762; Conservative force of Christianity, 763, 764; Many phases of secularism in education, 765–767; The right of the State and the right of the parent, 768; The position of the Church, 769; Religion must be an ever-living presence in the school-room, 770; Ruskin's testimony, 771; Renan, Strauss, Dr. Crosby, Prof. Bascom, 772; Religion itself when rationalized ceases to be vitalizing, 773, 774; Æsthetic culture will not make up for the absence of religion, 775, 776; Nor will ethical culture, 777, 778.

THE SUPPRESSION OF THE TEMPLARS. By Rev. Reuben Parsons, D.D., . . . 779

When military orders were first instituted, 779; Origin of the Templars, 780; Their rapid growth and the numerous complaints against them, 781; Object of this article, 782; Investigation in 1307, of charges against the Templars, 783, 784; Extracts from the letter of Clement V. to the king of France, 785–787; The investigation respecting the Templars, in 1310, by the Council of Sens, 787; Investigations in England and in Aragon, 788; The decree of Pope Clement V., 789, 790; Testimony of one of the Fathers of the Fifteenth General Council, 791; Objections stated and answered, 792, 793; Testimonies of contemporary writers condemning the Templars, 794–796; Voltaire's sophistical arguments, 797–799; The retraction of their confessions of guilt by the Grand Master and the brother of the Dauphin of Auvergne has no weight, 800, 801; The suppression of the Templars not ascribable to the covetousness of King Philip, 802, 803; The supposed relation of the Masonic Order to that of the Temple, 804, 805.

WHY EDUCATION SHOULD BE FREE. By Michael Hennessy, ... 806

Wild utterances of advocates of the State schools, 806; The system has not given satisfaction, 807; Demagogic utterances about the homogeneity of the American people, 808; The republic wants no such barbaric unity, 809; Political liberty in ancient civilizations, 810, 811; Teachings of Plato and Aristotle, 812; Guizot on ancient civilization, 813, 814; Silly complaints against the attachment of foreign-born citizens to the language and custom of their fatherlands, 815; Enforced homogeneity would destroy individual freedom, 816, 817.

EDGAR ALLAN POE. By William O'Leary Curtis, ... 818

Poe's birthplace, parentage, education and character in youth, 818–820; His marriage, 821; His connections with various literary magazines and journals, 822; His amiable wife, her delicate health and early death, 823; The drink fiend, 824;

PAGE

A beautiful poem, not found among his published writings, Leonainie, 824, 825; The high merits of Poe's poetry, 827; Critical remarks and quotations, 828–832; His beautifully written tales and a brief apology for Poe, 833.

THE PAGANISM OF CÆSAR. By D. A. O'Sullivan, Q.C., ... 834

The civil order and the spiritual order, 834; The Church's teaching in spiritual matters above all temporal law, 835; Attempts to subordinate the spiritual order must always fail, 836, 837; How far Christianity is really the law of the land, 838, 839; Encroachments of the state, 840–844.

THE BATTLE OF THE BOYNE AND THE SIEGES OF LIMERICK, 1690–1691. By M. A. C., ... 845

Description of the battlefield and scenery, 845, 846: James' landing and reception, 847; His appearance in the Irish House of Lords, and expression of thanks, 848; Landing of William, the composition of his army, 849; His name a synonym for bloodshed and religious intolerance, 850; Admirable courage of James' Irish troops, 851; The defeat due to James' cowardice, 852; The recuperative power of Ireland, 853; William appearing before Limerick, 854; Bishop O'Brien and Ireton, 855; Heroic resistance of the besieged, 856; William's rage at his repulse, 857; The siege of Athlone and battle of Aughrim, 857; Limerick again besieged, capitulates, 859; The Irish army entering into the service of foreign countries, 860; The horrible penal laws, 861; Ireland still Catholic, 862.

SCIENTIFIC CHRONICLE. By Rev. Thomas J. A. Freeman, S. J., ... 863

The photochronograph, 863–873; Meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, 873–876; Short notes on various scientific discoveries, 877–880.

BOOK NOTICES.

	PAGE
A Christian Apology. Vol. I	664
Abaelardo	667
A Christian Apology. Vol. II	884
Acts of English Martyrs Hitherto Unpublished	656
American Ecclesiastical Review	896
Blessed J. B. De La Salle	670
Compendium Theologiæ Moralis	891
Considerationes Pro Reformatione Vitæ usum Maxime Tempore Exercitiorum Spiritualium	669
Die Katakombengemaide und ihre Alten Copien, eine Ikonographische Studie von Joseph Wilpert	436
Historisches Jahrbuch	671
Handbook of the Christian Religion	894
Historical Sketch of the Philadelphia Theological Seminary of St. Charles Borromeo	439
History of the Church from its First Establishment to our Own Times	446
How to Get On	667
Historisches Jahrbuch	222
Instructions for First Confession	443
Ipse, Ipsa; Ipse, Ipsa, Ipsum. Which?	433
John McHale, Archbishop of Tuam. His Life, Times and Correspondence	218
Judaism and Christianity	220
Les Criteres Theolgiques	216
La Vida de S. Luis Gonzaga Patrona de la Juventud Christiana	894
La Republique Americaine Etats-Unis	428
Life of John Boyle O'Reilly	438
Letters and Correspondence of John Henry Newman during his life in the English Church	896
Letters of St. Alphonsus Maria de Liguori, Doctor of the Church	447
Life of Father Charles Sire of the Society of Jesus	659
Les Chartes Coloniales et les Constitutions des Etats-Unis de L'Amerique Du Nord	661
Life and Writings of Sir Thomas More	666
Life of St. Aloysius Gonzaga of Society of Jesus	670
Life and Scenery in Missouri	672
Moralphilosophie	881
Moses Bar Kepha und Sein Buch Von der Seele	893
Manual of Church History	435
Monumenta Germaniæ Pædagogica	441
Mary in the Epistles	446
Month of June in Honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus	447
Meditations on the Gospels for Every Day in the Year	663
Mores Catholici; or, Ages of Faith	669
Natural Theology	887
Orbis Terrarum Catholicus, sive totius Ecclesiæ Catholicæ et Occidentis et Orientis Conspectus Geographicus et Statisticus	223
Psychology	442
Percy Wynn; or, Making a Boy of Him	671
Sayings of Cardinal Newman	221
Sermons and Lectures	444
Short Sermons on the Gospels	672
The Christ, The Son of God	665
The Life of the Venerable Madeline Barat	893
The Life and Times of Kateri Tekakwitha, the Lily of the Mohawks, 1656-1680	896
The Life of Jesus Christ According to the Gospel History	888
The Life of St. John Baptist De Rossi	892
The History of St. Dominic	895
The Letters of the Late Father George Porter, S. J., Archbishop of Bombay	890
The Israelite Before the Ark of the Covenant and the Christian Before the Altar	892
The Life of St. Patrick, Apostle of Ireland	440
The Life of Christopher Columbus	444
The Life of Blessed Margaret Mary	445
The Blind Apostle and Heroine of Charity	445
The Science of the Saints in Practice	447
The Christ, the Son of God	224
The Christian Virgin in Her Family and in the World	668
The Soul of Man	668
The Holy Face of Jesus	671
The Ave Maria	672
Zeitschrift Fur Katholische Theologie	670